LOCAL NEWS.

PREBBYZERY OF CHESAPEAKE. - An adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Chesapeake was held in the First Presbyterian Church, last night, and at which there was a large congregation present.

Rev. Dr. J.A. Lefevre, Moderator, preached a most excellent sermon from the text: "And of his fullness have all we received, and grace for grace."

After the sermon the Moderator called the Presbytery to order, and after prayer by the Rev. Mr. Cannon, stated that the only business on the docket was to hear the reports of the committees appointed to install Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, and to organize the Union Presbyterian Church, of Alexandria. Rev. Mr. Murkland reported that Rev. Mr.

Dinwiddie had been installed pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in the presence of a large congregation, all of the committee being present, and asked that the committee be discharged. The report was accepted and the committee discharged. Rev. Dr. White, Chairman of the Committee to organize the Union Presbyterian Church, of Alexandria, reported that the Church had been properly organized; its officers elected, ordained and installed, and the Rev. J. J. Bullock, D.D., elected its pastor, and on motion, the report was received and approved. Mr. Murkland moved that the Union Presbyterian Church, of Alexandria, be received and enrolled among the churches of this Presbytery, and Mr. Wm. H Lambert be admitted as a Commissioner, which motion was unanimously adopted.

Elder Wm. H. Lambert then presented the call by the Union Church to Rev. Dr. Bullock, which was placed in the hands of Dr. B., and by him accepted. be appointed to install Dr. Bullock, and at the suggestion of Mr. Lambert, Rev. Dr. Lefevre, to preach the sermon, Rev. Dr. White, to deliver the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie. Murkland the charge to the people, was appointed, and Wednesday, October the 7th, at 74 o'clock p. m., in the First Presbyterian Church, fixed as the time and place for the installation.

Rev. Mr. Pitzer apologized for having published, by mistake, the name of Dr. Hamner dependent candidate for Treasurer of Fairfax as one of the committee to install Boy, Mr. county. Dinwiddie, instead of Rev. Mr. McMurran. The Clerk was granted authority to prepare a statistical report of Presbytery for requisite lumber has already arrived.

Synod. The Presbytery then adjourned subject to the call of the Moderator during the session of Synod at Winchester, on the 21st of October.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—The new Board room, at the Peabody School Building, not being, as yet, furnished, Messrs. E. Snowden, jr., MILLINERY ORNAMENTS. chairman, and Addison, J. S. Beach, Wheat and Whittington, trustees, with the Superintendent of Schools, assembled in the office of the last named at 7:30 last evening. There was much important business to be transacted, so the chairman waited until five minutes after eight before directing the call of the roll. At that hour, the appearance of a quorum seeming hopeless, the Board adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman whenever a meeting seemed to be practicable.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon.

Richard Carter, for striking Mary Baily, both colored, was fined and discharged. Anthony Grant, colored, for stealing tubs from Mrs. S. K. Snyder, was sent to jail for thirty days, and put on the chain gang.

The above cases were before the Mayor. Samuel, alias William Johnson, a pockmarked colored man, hailing from Jacksonville, Florida, arrested as a suspicious character, was sent to jail for further examination.

GAME. - Reed birds have almost entirely disappeared, but the marshes still abound with sora. Summer ducks and blue wing are also quite abundant. Gunners are so numerous that the fusilede they keep up early in the morning in the swamp on the southern side of Hunting Creek, and distinctly audible in the city, recalls uncomfortable recollections of skirmish engagements during the late war.

HEBREW FEAST OF TABRNACLES. -The first day of the Hebrew Feast of Tabernacles commenced yesterday at sunset and ends this evening. Services were held last evening in the synagogue and there were ceremonies and the singing of psalms this morning. The feast lasts for seven days with the reformed Hebrews and for nine days with the orthodox, a portion of the days being only half holidays. The observances of the feast which commemorates the wanderings of the Israelites in the desert are of a joyous character.

AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION. -The steamer Mary Washington left here this morning crowded with the members of the Potomac Fruit Growers' Association, and Woodlawn and Auandale Farmers' Clubs, and their friends from Washington and this city and neighborhood, for Mount Vernon, were the annual exhibition of the three societies mentioned took place, the live stock being exposed on the land, the other articles on the steamer.

Y. M. C.A.-The last weekly night open air meeting was held at the corner of King and Favette streets last night. A full committee was at work, a full congregation was present, who paid marked attention to the speakers, and the exercises were of the usual stirring character.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.-The Clerk of the City School Board issued, this morning, eleven permits for white and twenty-five for colored children. So far four more permits have been issued than there were children in the schools during the whole of last year.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The market was well supplied this morning with all sorts of provisions, including some fresh fish and game. The attendance of both buyers and sellers was large, and the only parent discrepancy between the prices of the latter and the amount of funds for the former.

The alarm of fire about eight o'clock last night was caused by the explosion of an oil lamp in the jewelry store of Theodore Dilger, on Royal street, near the market. A little child, upon whom some of the burning fluid was thrown, was saved from injury by Mr. James Neale.

There was a famous rat killing in the warehouse of Shinn & Co., on the Strand, this morning, and the result would have gladdened the hearts of a Johnson's Island or Point Lookout prisoner some years ago.

The needed repairs to Log Wall Level, of the C. & O. Canal, having been completed, navigation has been again resumed, and boats were arriving and departing freely this morning.
